

Living with traumatic brain injury

Seeking treatment

As reported by 235 members of PatientsLikeMe's traumatic brain injury community

Who is being treated for their TBI?

TOTAL POPULATION

Among those who have received treatment for their TBI...

What were the most important factors in the decision to seek treatment?

TOTAL POPULATION

Problems with cognitive functioning

74%

Problems with physical functioning

59%

Problems managing my emotions

57%

MILITARY VS. NON-MILITARY

Problems with family relationships

MILITARY

65%

NON-MILITARY

30%

What is the most commonly reported treatment?

TOTAL POPULATION

75%

Anti-depressants or anti-anxiety medication

Is treatment helpful in treating symptoms?

TOTAL POPULATION

72%

Found it at least moderately helpful

What are the primary reasons for stopping treatment?

- ✓ Treatment not offered
- ✓ No longer required treatment

24%

TOTAL POPULATION

of members have never received TBI treatment

What are the top reasons for not seeking treatment among those who haven't had treatment but are interested in receiving it?

Among 47 members who have not had treatment but are interested in receiving it

TOTAL POPULATION

I didn't know treatment was available

60%

I didn't know where to get treatment

60%

Military = people who indicated they have served in the military.
Non-military = people who indicated they have not served in the military and people who have not specified their military status